What a difference a few weeks makes as spring reveals its hidden treasures. Bulbs blossom, the days are noticeably longer, and we can anticipate the benefits of our lives 'opening up' in the days ahead. Easter is one of my favourite holidays...so many fun memories of painting eggs, filling baskets and decorating bonnets; the more flamboyant, the better! Thank you for supporting the local businesses represented in the magazine, most of whom are sole proprietors and really appreciate your custom. Keep safe and continue to take precautions as we slowly return to a new 'normal'. Have a lovely April.

Happy Easter!

THE COST OF CLIMATE CHANGE - BRANSHAW GOLF CLUB

The Worth Valley's sole golf course sits high on Branshaw Moor above Oakworth at around 800ft above sea level.

Established 109 years ago, Branshaw golf course has grown from a 9-hole course to a classic moorland 18-hole course. Not many golf courses can boast that James Braid was their designer and even fewer can also claim that Dr Alister Mackenzie was involved in the design of their course. Branshaw Golf Club is in an enviable position that we can claim both of these world-famous course architects / designers were responsible for our unique layout.

Climate change has impacted our course dramatically in recent times. The ten warmest years on record have all occurred since 2002, highlighted by the summer of 2018 and spring of 2020, where drought conditions greatly affected the course and the greens in particular. The club has had to react to this trend and make changes that our designers would never have envisaged. The decision was made by the club and its members to invest over £100k in an irrigation system fed by a new 60 metre deep borehole.

The piped system provides water to every green when needed & will prevent damage to the course caused by long hot dry spells of weather, which are becoming common place. This investment will protect the future of the course and the club against changes in our climate. This has been by far the largest investment in our history, all this whilst the cloud of the Covid-19 pandemic which is still affecting us all. This outlay will allow the greenkeeping team to manage the greens without constantly checking weather Apps and services for the long-range forecasts.

All our members and partners are looking forward to seeing the benefits of the new system in the coming years. This considered expenditure should safeguard the future of Branshaw Golf Club for a further 100 years and help to further elevate the quality of the environment for all to enjoy.

If you are interested in finding out more about Branshaw Golf Club and our extensive facilities contact us on 01535 647441.

Learning throughout our lives can improve self-esteem and increase life-satisfaction.

Over the past year, we have helped hundreds of people complete a FREE* Distance Learning course and gain a Level 2 Nationally recognised qualification.

The reasons for completing each course have been varied; some people have been learning for work, some have been looking to improve their job prospects, some have learnt to support their friends and families whilst others have just wanted to keep their minds occupied and pass the time. Our learners are between the ages of 19 - 80+ and come from all parts of the community.

We have over 30 courses to choose from ranging from Mental Health Awareness and Preparing to Work in Adult Social Care through to Team Leading and LGBT Inclusion. Our most popular courses are: Autism, Business Administration, Children and Young Peoples Mental Health, Dementia Care, Equality and Diversity, Nutrition & Health. The latest additions to the course list includes Event Planning, IT User Skills and Principles for Digital Skills in Employment.

Each course takes 6-12 weeks to complete and can be achieved in the comfort of your own home, fitting in with local lockdowns and work or family demands.

Choose to learn with a traditional paper based approach or access your materials online with a computer or tablet for an interactive learning environment.. Either way, you will be assigned a tutor to support you every step of the way.

One Learner who took the Behaviour that Challenges in Children course commented, "I thought the course was structured extremely well. The resources provided were excellent. It was very clear and I was easily able to navigate my way through what was required. Everything I needed to know to answer the questions was provided."

Kathryn has created a lovely 'Cheese & Wine' tasting experience, a special collaboration with award winning cheese maker 'The Courtyard at Settle' in North Yorkshire.

We asked Kathryn, if everything goes to plan this year, what can we expect to see from Bronte Bars & Events and their HQ, The Burnt Bear? "We are really looking forward to our tasting rooms at the Bear being available for private parties, business meetings, intimate weddings... all manner of imaginatively themed and creatively curated events for our discerning customers."

"We are also committed to continue our work in the local community by sponsoring specific organisations and groups we see making a real contribution; for example, we are currently hosting the 'It's Worth Talking About' wellness group in Cross Roads." "Virtual parties will still feature in our repertoire after delivering a number of very popular and successful Virtual Cocktail Making Classes over the past year. It's a fabulous and fun way to do a bit of team building or bonding with friends and family...we call it Mixology and Mayhem!"

"Our tailor made Mobile Bar is back in service and available for hire. Contact us to book your event. Follow us on social media for the latest news and contact us directly if you have a special occasion on the horizon that requires a professional touch."

"You're entirely bonkers. But I'll tell you a secret, all the best people are."

We recently caught up with Kathryn Thornton, founder of the award winning Bronte Bars & Events and creator of the original Rum & Gin Express Experience, Haworth Beer Festival, and many other noteworthy seasonal local events.

Kathryn continues to curate unique experiences for private and corporate clients with amazing creative focus despite the challenges of the past twelve months. When we last interviewed Kathryn she was up for another hospitality award and on the cusp of opening The Burnt Bear, a 'must experience' micro bar located in Cross Roads.

As things turned out, it was not possible to enjoy meeting friends in the new tasting rooms at the 'Bear,' but thankfully Kathryn and her team were able to pivot and offer inventive Takeaway Cocktail boxes, Gins, Rums, Whiskies Taster packages, as well as Crafty Cans and even their very own Burnt Bear Coffee brand; all professionally prepared and artfully packaged for a full sensory experience.

Never one to stand still, Kathryn's latest addition to the Takeaway menu includes 'The Burnt Bear Pies & Pint,' a collaborative effort with Marsh Top Farm & Wishbone Brewery. For the more sophisticated palates out there,

BEHIND THE SCENES at the BRONTË PARSONAGE MUSEUM

Have you visited the Brontë Lounge yet? Last summer, we were missing our visitors very much, so we decided to open the Brontë Lounge, a friendly and informal Zoom space where we could talk Brontë with some of the many writers who have been inspired by them.

We were joined by fans from all over the world as well as many of our friends from Yorkshire. Students, academics, writers, all joined us for a special programme of fundraising events.

First up was writer Samantha Ellis whose impassioned quest to find out more about Anne was threaded with her own personal narrative.

Novelist Tracy Chevalier joined us from deep in Thomas Hardy country where she talked about her life-changing year as creative partner for Charlotte's bicentenary. She said, 'Books help me leave my daily life and enter the dream world.'

Anne Brontë's bicentenary year might have been a bit overshadowed but in the Brontë Lounge Anne totally stole the limelight!

Samira Ahmed – our creative partner for 2021 - told us that it was Anne Brontë who gave her the courage to fight her landmark gender pay gap battle.

Patience Agbabi was thoughtful as she read her from exquisite Emily inspired poems and ruminated on the possibility that Emily might have been autistic. Poetry was also part of the fare when UK Poet Laureate Simon Armitage joined us to reflect on Branwell and shared poems from his 2017 Mansions in the Sky collection accompanied by images from the collection that inspired them.

Caryl Phillips zoomed in from the US with a cohort of international post-grad students and talked of his love of Yorkshire and the moors, which for him are bound up with both the Brontës and the moors murderers which conjoined and swirled in The Lost Child.

Sally Wainwright took us on a rollicking gallop across Yorkshire with the Brontës and Anne Lister. She invited us to speculate on the possibility that Emily and Anne might possibly have met and hinted that the next strong woman ripe for the Wainwright treatment might be Charlotte's very own Shirley...!

Since then, we have also welcomed Rowan Coleman (aka Bella Ellis), Sharon Wright and Andrew Michael Hurley. What have we learned from all these events? How many people out there love Branwell, how many readers feel that Anne is the true trailblazer and how many readers and writers continue to be delighted and inspired by the Brontës. And despite the enforced closure of the Parsonage, the whole Brontë community – whether in Bradford or Buenos Aires - can come together in the Brontë Lounge. If you missed all those events, don't worry. The Brontë Lounge is here to stay and our April guest is Moira Buffini, writer, playwright and showrunner. Moira wrote the screenplay for the acclaimed 2011 film of Jane Eyre starring Mia Wasikowska and Michael Fassbender. She'll be joining us on 22 April, just a day after Charlotte's 205th birthday. Why not join us from the comfort of your sofa?

World Curlew Day
A chance to save Britain's critically endangered curlews

The Eurasian curlew, one of Britain's best-loved and most recognisable birds, is facing an unprecedented population crisis as a result of modern farming practices, habitat loss, predation and climate change. The UK's breeding population has declined by over 60% since 1970.

However, there is plenty we can do to protect them if we act now, and new charity Curlew Action hopes that World Curlew Day on the 21st of April will help kickstart a coordinated effort to save the curlew.

With its long, downwards curving bill and distinctive call, the curlew is not just a cultural symbol of the British countryside: it is also a critical bioindicator for our grassland and wetland ecosystems. In the UK, which holds a quarter of the world's Eurasian curlews, the birds are now considered one of the highest priority bird species for conservation, as several factors have made it harder for them to breed. In particular, increasing numbers of predators like foxes and crows present a danger to curlew nests, and destruction of suitable breeding habitats, as a result of land-use changes and farming practices, has massively reduced breeding success rates.

We are running out of time to save these precious birds, with some scientists estimating that we could see regional or even country-level extinctions in the next 10 years.

Curlew Action is dedicated to comprehensive, coordinated and science-based action to reverse the decline in Britain and Europe. "We are working hard to fund the completion and distribution of a 'Fieldworker's Toolkit' in time for this year's breeding season" says Mary Colwell, author of Curlew Moon and founder of Curlew Action. "This can make a tangible difference to our curlew populations by giving access to advice on best practice and the law around working with birds." The charity is entering several teams into the Kiltwalk fundraising event, as well as holding curlew art and poetry competitions, and much more. "The Curlew is an iconic bird of British landscapes. Its haunting, evocative call was once heard from the coast to the mountains, but it is rapidly disappearing", says charity-founder Colwell, "and World Curlew Day is a chance for us all to get behind the recovery of this beautiful bird, and bring magic and wonder back to our landscapes."

Hello Spring

Halva

Say hello to our new favorite dessert/ snack...Halva! If you have never heard of Halva, it's a middle eastern dessert very popular in Israel, Greece, Turkey, and many other countries. Made with tahini and honey or sugar, it's sweet, nutty and has a crumbly yet soft texture. This 3-ingredient Halva is not only vegan, but it's also refined sugar-free.

Ingredients

- 80g maple syrup
- 140g tahini
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- optional: hand full of roasted pistachios

Method

Lightly grease a small glass baking dish. You can use a silicone muffin pan if you want, the shape doesn't really matter. Place the maple syrup in a medium saucepan and heat over medium heat until it reaches 266°F (130°C). The maple syrup will bubble and some foam will form, this is normal. While the maple syrup is heating, place the tahini, vanilla extract, and pistachios if using in another saucepan and warm over low heat. Tahini must be just warm, not hot. Once the maple syrup has reached the temperature, turn the heat off and pour the warm tahini into the saucepan. Using a wooden spoon, stir until it starts to thicken and doesn't look shiny anymore. You can use an electric beater if you want but do not beat for too long as it thickens very quickly, about 10 seconds. Pour immediately into the prepared dish and spread it into an even layer. Let cool at room temperature for at least 3 hours before removing from the dish. You can then cut it into small squares, or make small chunks. Halva will keep stored in an airtight container at room temperature for up to 3 weeks. Enjoy!

If you don't fancy making it yourself Cobbles and Clay in Haworth serves a very fine Halva; a lovely textured and flavourful one that took the proprietor, Jill Ross, months to source. It is worth the trip and we suggest it is paired with a double espresso for a fully loaded afternoon pick me up treat.

Yorkshire Loft Ladders, Quality You Can Trust

These days most homeowners suffer from a lack of storage space. So many precious items that need to be kept - but where to store it all? That's where Yorkshire Loft Ladders come in. The company, based locally, offers homeowners the opportunity to maximise their storage space with a loft ladder, 50 sq ft of boarding and a light all fully fitted in less than a day from just £277 + VAT. But it's not just the affordability of the package the company offers that makes Yorkshire Loft Ladders stand out as manager Mark Hodson explains: 'Our watchwords are Quality, Integrity and Value. Quality in the materials that we use for all our installations and the fact that all our loft packages are fitted by time served tradesman so our customers are assured of the best job. Integrity in that we will turn up at the time we say and make sure the house is spotless when we leave, and Value in that we offer our services at a price people can afford. Our business relies on referrals and we get a huge amount of our calls from people who have been referred to us by our existing customers - that simply wouldn't happen if we didn't adhere to our overniding principles.

At the end of the day the old adage that happy customers lead to more happy customers is true and we work hard to make that happen for every installation we carry out!

So, if you want to make use of your loft space, however big or small, call Warren on 0800 612 8359 and he'll be happy to pop round and give you a no obligation quote so you too can make use of your loft.
